

Men with worldly wisdom believe that Eternal Happiness is the exclusive privilege only of Incorporeal God, but intuition says that

A HUMAN BEING
WITH DIVINE WISDOM AND INSIGHT IS SUPERIOR TO INCORPOREAL
GOD.

Incorporeal God is immune from happiness or sorrow; that is the Power behind the working of the World Creative Play, just as light is behind the working of an ordinary bioscope. Experience gained through Divine Insight supported by the true facts of the Shastras shows that a human being believing himself as God due to faith in 'Aham Brahm Asmi' can alone enjoy everlasting happiness. The status of such a human being possessing this Imperishable Divine Wisdom is infinitely superior to Incorporeal God, since He alone can reveal and impart the knowledge of ब्रह्म (Infinite Divine Light) and can also become instrumental for establishing BRAHM-PURI (वैकुण्ठ), the World of Gods and Goddesses on this very Karma-Kshetra.
